Dear Sir:

Applicant has received the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance with the July 14, 2006 Notice of Allowance and Allowability regarding the above-identified application. Entry of the Statement into the record should not be construed as any agreement with or acquiescence in the reasoning stated by the Examiner. Each of the claims stands on its own merits and is patentable because of the combination it recites and not because of the presence or absence of any one particular element.

The Examiner's Statement was not prepared by Applicant and only contains the Examiner's possible positions in one or more reasons for allowability. For instance, the Examiner's Statement refers to particular sets of claims as having overlapping patentable subject matter, but does not address the patentability of differences between those claims. Further, with respect to particular sets of claims, the Examiner's Statement uses language, including exemplary language, that is not recited by each of those claims. Any interpretation with respect to the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance should not be imputed to the Applicant.

Dated: October 16, 2006

Respectfully submitted,

By
